

Creature comforts

Placing print designs on simple black or white vests and T-shirts, Scandinavian label New Generals creates a menagerie of fantastical creatures from fun combinations of anything from butterflies and deers to humans and beetles. Organic cotton vest £17 (ages 2–8).

Peach perfect

Luxury childrenswear website La Fille Unique (www.la-fille-unique.com) has a fantastic selection for Spring/Summer '11, including lovely labels like Bobo Choses, Il Gufo and Marie-Chantal. Highlights of the season include T-shirts and cardigans in vibrant raspberry pink and mustard yellow hues, floral-printed puffball skirts and this gorgeous peach pleated dress, £142 by Il Gufo (ages 3–8).

Sun-safe style

Sunuva, who specialise in stylish UV-protection swimwear and beachwear, has created a host of new designs for summer, including swim shorts and rash vests for boys and swimsuits for girls, as well as a range of beachwear and accessories. Prints include Indian elephants and marine stripes (right). Swimsuit and shorts £34 each (ages 1–12).

Fashion

Catherine Hudson finds the latest fashion must-haves for children

It's chino time!

It's official: the classic chino and T-shirt combo is back for Spring/Summer '11. High-street label M&Co is at the forefront of this reignited trend and has a fantastic range of smart, preppy outfits for boys. T-shirt £7 and chino trousers £13 (both ages 18 months–5 years), sandals £10 (sizes 23–28) and sunglasses £6.